

MINDDESIGNMEDIA DISCLAIMER

The minddesignmedia.net website is a personal portfolio of content created by Catherine White to share information, support foundations or nonprofits, and promote social causes. Content may summarize or interpret publicly available research or policy research, interpret guidance from health or policy organizations, and reference organizations. All interpretations, explanations, and opinions are my own and do not represent the views, endorsement, or approval of the organizations referenced. Health-related information does not indicate professional health advice or guidance. More information about addressing urgent health needs is below. An attempt has been made to cite sources, give attributions to content, and indicate the non-commercial and volunteer relationship with organizations for donations. Catherine White, at MINDDESIGNMEDIA does not receive compensation, commissions, or referral fees, and this site is entirely non-commercial.

Health-Related Content

While my work is informed and inspired by education in neuroscience (biopsychology) and professional experience in physical and mental health-related fields, all health-related content reflects my personal perspectives, interpretations, and experiences. Health-related information provided on this website is intended for general awareness from my personal perspective. It should not be considered medical, psychological, or clinical advice or expertise, and does not replace consultation with qualified professionals.

Some topics may relate to physical, neurological, or mental-health related topics. If you are experiencing an urgent health-related situation, please contact a qualified professional and/or emergency services by calling 911. If you are experiencing suicidal thoughts or a mental, behavioral, emotional, or substance-related crisis or know of a crisis for another person, please call, text, or reach out to the 988 LifeLine or reach out to a related local service.

Campaigns

While my mentioned campaigns relate to my interest in health and social causes, all content reflects my personal perspectives, interpretations, and experiences. Campaigns and organizations highlighted on this website are included to support public and social causes and organizations that support health needs. Campaign donations are made directly through the organizations' official websites. I do not receive compensation, commissions, or referral fees, and this site is entirely non-commercial.

Organizations Referenced or Sourced

Policy or research organizations for health or social issues are summarized as publicly available research; interpretations are my own. When specific sources are used, I have attempted to cite them in content and am updating that information currently.
